MEDICINAL DISCOURAGED

The expression occurs so many times in letters from sick women to Dr. Pierce, "I was completely discouraged." And there is always good reason for the discouragement. Years of suffering. Doctor after doctor tried in vain. Medicines doing no lasting good. It is no wonder that the woman feels discouraged. Thousands of these weak and sick women have found health and courage regained as the result of the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, drives unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"In the year 1891 I was taken sick," writes Mrs. E. J. Corder, of Ripley, Lauderdale Co., Tenn. "My limbs ached, and severe pains in back and lower part of bowels, with difficulty in urination, and smarting and burning pain after. I tried many kinds of medicine and four of the best doctors in the country, until I gave up all hope of recovery. In January, 1901, I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and received from him a bottle of his 'Favorite Prescription.' I took eleven bottles, six of 'Favorite Prescription,' five of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and one box of 'Lyon's Tablets,' and used one box of 'Lyon's Tablets' and one of 'Healing Anaplastics,' and am now able to work at anything I want to. Thank you for your valuable medicine and kind advice."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"NO BREAKFAST" IS CREED OF THIS SECT.

Edgar Wallace Conable, founder of a strange health colony in Colorado several years ago, has abandoned the high altitude of the Rockies and has bought 8000 acres of land in northern Arkansas and colonized it with several hundred followers, all of whom believe in his manner of living.

The colonists eat no breakfast. The men do not love their wives, nor do the wives love their husbands. Living in family groups is a mere matter of form, it is contended, although there have been family squabbles, caused by jealous husbands and wives, in this colony.

The settlement lies among the Frisco system, and is to be made into one vast orchard and vineyard. No form of animal life must be killed on the premises, but it is the endeavor of the colonists to drive away all kinds of insects and pests.

The land, which was bought only a few weeks ago, is now being planted in fruit trees, and settlers are building their homes on the wide stretch of the mountain country. By next summer they expect to have everything in first-class working order.

According to their creed, people should live in the highest form of physical and mental life. This embraces extended periods of fasting for purification of the body and the elimination of disease. It contemplates the nonuse of meat, alcoholic stimulants and tobacco.

Conable says that as soon as his crops begin to grow he will allow no one on the premises, except as a temporary guest, who lives on anything but his sort of food. No morning meal will be tolerated by the Conable colony, and no cook stoves will be found in the kitchens. The housework of the women will be limited, inasmuch as the only preparation of the food will be to wash away the dirt.

Fasting is regarded as a means of strengthening the body among these people. Miss Reda Benjamin, a young woman, has just completed a fast of twenty-five days without any bad effect to her body. She has muscles as hard as an athlete, and is a perfect specimen of physical womanhood.

No physicians are allowed in the colony. Whenever a person is ill he is placed under the care of one of the health teachers, who, by a system of cereal and fruit products, and by fasting, or starving the disease, as they say, attempts to cure the patient.

Conable allows no horses on the farm, and all the work is done by human hands or steam power.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Josephine Meade, a student of the University of California, was shot and killed in San Francisco yesterday by Paul Schmidt, aged twenty-five years, who afterward committed suicide. Miss Meade was formerly a resident of Los Angeles, where she was employed as a teacher in the public schools. Schmidt was also a resident of Los Angeles, where he is said to have been prominently connected. The tragedy occurred at 1819 Laguna street, where Miss Meade lodged. On leaving the house Miss Meade was met by Schmidt, who had been waiting in the neighborhood for some time. Miss Meade and Schmidt adjourned to a near-by doorway, where they stood for a few minutes, Schmidt talking earnestly and with many gestures. Miss Meade stepped away from him and approached a passerby, to whom she said: "I beg your pardon, but this man—" At that moment Schmidt began shooting. He sent four bullets into the girl's body. When she fell dead he calmly looked at her a few moments and walked down the street, removing the empty shells from his revolver. He then reloaded the pistol, and after firing in the air to test the cartridge, placed the pistol against his forehead and fired. He died instantly. Schmidt and Miss Meade had been acquainted several years and were once engaged to be married. His attentions became disasteful to her, however, and she becoming alarmed at his threats against her life, gave up her position in Los Angeles and went to Boston to escape him, afterward returning to San Francisco, where Schmidt followed. Miss Meade was a niece of Vicar General Hartnett, of the Southern California diocese, and was of an excellent reputation.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN.

A dispatch from Tokyo dated Wednesday says: "Important cabinet meetings were held yesterday and today, and the impression in well-informed circles is that Japan will insist on Russia's fulfillment of her promises. The newspaper comment is quiet but insistent. The Nichi Nichi, the most powerful paper, believes the St. Petersburg government is innocent of the bellicose actions of the Russian agents in the Orient. It urges, however, the necessity for precaution, because the ambition of Russian agents not infrequently precipitates hostilities. The Jiji, also an influential paper, maintains that the only hope of peace lies in Russia's fulfillment of her promises."

The veteran statesmen's conferences with the cabinet ministers at Tokyo Tuesday, while significant of a crisis, are understood to have been pacific, confirming the prior conferences before the throne June 23, stipulating the integrity of Korea and Chinese retention of Manchuria, with a recognition of Russian rights. These conferences indicate that the negotiations are progressing toward a pacific solution of the problem. M. Lessar, the Russian minister to China, has informed Prince Ching, head of the Chinese Foreign Office, that if China rejects the demands of Russia the occupation of Manchuria by the Russian troops will be permanent. Rana Ten Penny Nail Through H's Hand.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by Richard Gibson.

Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Liquid Catarrh Balm is becoming quite as popular in many localities as Ely's Cream Balm solid. It is prepared for use in atomizers, and is highly prized by those who have been accustomed to call upon physicians for such a treatment. Many physicians are using and prescribing it. All the medicinal properties of the celebrated Cream Balm are contained in the Liquid form, which is 75c. including a spraying tube. All druggists or by mail.
